Sir,

In submitting herewith the record of enquiry relating to the Toddy Revenue of Jodi Vaddarahalli village, Tumkur taluk, together with an extract from the Inam Quit Rent Register, and Copy of docket No. M. 1052, dated 5th Instant, from the Tumkur District Deputy Commissioner, I have the honor to state that I concur in the Deputy Commissioner's and investigating Officer's opinions that the Jodidar is entitled to Excise Revenue from Toddy. There is a Toddy Shop and a few date trees in this village. Accordingly Excise Revenue is payable to the Jodidar, subject to Rules 2, 3, 5, 6 and 9 in Government Proceedings No. 2074-83/R.F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901.

In enm.

The Jodidars' claim has been recognised by the Inam Superintendent and the Jodidars are entitled to the same by sanad and enjoyment. A Shop has been for a long time in esistence and the Inamdar has proved enjoyment of its rent till 1889. During 1892-93 to 1896-97 owing to the purchaser or the Shop farmer having been allowed to sell at a lower rate than the Trinkur Town farmers, there was an unnatural increase of consumption caused by the rush of the towns people to the cheaper shop and the total rent of the five years amounted to 3708 Rupees. During the five years ending 1889 the rental was 10 Rs a year and during the four years from 1897-98 when uniform rates for toddy vended were prescribed by Government, the farm rent has yielded annually 114 Rs on an average. As it is not possible to obtain correct figures as to the number of trees tapped in Government groves (and no trees were ever tapped in this village) for this shop, as it is further impossible to ascertain the actual quantities quantities consumed in this shop during these years, and as the Inamdars shop had an undue advantage by Government permitting at their own expence lower prices thereby stimulating an inflow of customers whose drinking propensities were their legitimate asset, I would recommend in view of the extraordinary circumstances of this case and the impossibilities of making the calculations and deductions prescribed by rule 3, that for the years 1892-93 to 1896-97 the Inamdars may get without any deduction 114 Rs a year in all 570 Rs. For the four years 1897-98 to 1900-1901, the shop realised 456 Rs. Adding to this tree-tax, on the trees tapped for this village less local cess amounting to 387 Rs, and deducting from the aggregate sum, the cost of establishment, the Inamdars are entitled to 792 Rs 6 as 9 pies.

I award 1362-6-9 for the years 1892-93 to 1900-1901 and the shop tax as it may accrue year after year for subsequent years.

Dated 13th February 1902. (Signed) T. Paramasiva Iyer
Genl Asstt Commissioner
Inam Settlement

This may be submitted to the Excise Commissioner for final decision. According to Inamdars own showing this shop never fetched more than Rs.

Rs 10 per annum while under Inamdar management. Previous accounts show that the toddy revenue of the village was a uniform sum of Rs 6-8-8. The abnormal increases between 1892-93 to 1896-97 seem clearly to be due to the decrease of price of toddy in this shop to the prejudice of the Government shop as observed by the Assistant Commissioner. The average annual revenue for the last four years may be taken as the normal yield of this shop.
